Caruthers will have charge of ques tions prowing out of the corporation franchise has lown. He served two terms as prosonting altorney of Cape Girardeau county, Shartel, chief sterk, will have charge of the inheritance

George V. Herry, the present Dem ocratic incumbent, will be retained for a month or two to give Shartel Instructions in his duties. H. P. Hag land, also one of attorney-general Mc Allister's assistants, will also be retained for some time. Financi is a son of C. M. Shartel of Neosho, who was a member of Congress during the Roosevelt administration. Shartel is a graduate of the law school of the University of Michigan.

Snith will succeed Bagland, He is the only Republican ever elected to office in Dunklin county, having served as presecuting attorney of that county for four years. He was defeated for re-election, as prosecutor by only thirty-five votes, although the county went 500 democratic.

Gene Stevens Will Switch Jobs

C. E., better known as "Gene" auditor George E. Hackmann, will be secretary of state, George W. Becker. first took hold in January. 1916. and many democratic editors. "Gene" and Becker are bosom friends which fact fully explains why the for mer quits one good berth to accept another of equal rank and the same salary, $2,800 a year. Auditor Hackmann is now endeavoring to find a new chief clerk as capable, efficient and popular as "Gene,"

Secretary-elect Booker has fully thirty other indume to distribute among republican men and women. Another berth worth having because of its salary, $2,880 a year, is supervisor of the automobile licensing department, now held down by James J. O'Connor of Fredericktown. Thirty republicans have made application for this job.

Other Soft Snaps

Other clerkships to be bestowed by the incoming secretary of state pay $2,400 a year. The head of the corporation department, a place now occupied by J. E. Gehrean of Nevada under the euphonious title of corporation counsel, also pulls down $2,800 a year. A stenographer in this bu-reau, now held down by Miss Anna late you upon the completion of the road to the state line. A. I. Hopkins. Brady, a staunch democrat from Plattsburg, is paid $150 a month. > Democratic Committee to Meet The democratic state committee will meet in Jeffelreon City, Friday, Janunry 12, next, to hold a post mortem on the recent political volcanie up heaval in Missouri, presumably to establish the cause of it. The blame will be placed somewhere regardless of the fact that it is generally believed all over the state that the sole reason the ticket went down in defeat was due to the fact that it did not receive enough votes. The party phalany of fifteen democrats in the senate and thirty odd "only reliables" in the House will be there handy to take a become part in the "quirz a la mort." Who Will Attend

The general feeling is that Senstor James A. Reed and Dr. John H. Simon of St. Louis, who are heading the movement to reunite Missouri democracy in time for the next election two years hence to renominate and elect Miscouri's deomeratic toga wearer, will not attend the pow-wow. Any how no urgent invitations to attend have been sent the two through Uncle Sam's postal special delivery service at this writing. Among those scheduled to attend the party's com-Stovens, now chief clerk for state ing memorial conference aside from the state committee, and democratic chief clerk for the new republican state senators and representatives and retiring state officials, are John M. when that official takes hold Jan- Atkinson, the recent gubernatorial uary 10.
